The choice of 42 VCE subjects gave students from the Class of 2014 the chance to pursue their passion.

Two hundred and fifty students completed their VCE with a 100 per cent pass rate. Around 47 per cent of ATARs (Australian Tertiary Admission Rank) were 70 and above, with 26.5 per cent 80 and above.

95% of students received a round one tertiary offer.

Students claim top VCE excellence awards

Each year the Victorian Curriculum and Assessment Authority (VCAA) features works from the most outstanding VCE students (studying Units 3 & 4 subjects) from the previous year in the ‘VCE Season of Excellence’. This comprises 12 concerts (Top Class and Top Acts), two exhibitions (Top Designs and Top Arts), and multiple screenings of short films (Top Screen) presented in Melbourne’s major cultural venues from February–June.

Monique Kay’s photography has ranked among the best student work in Victoria. Her photos were selected to form part of the prestigious TOPshots exhibition, held at the Monash Gallery of Art.

Michael Cochrane (Class of 2014) for his glove-controlled robot.
Ashley de Kok (Class of 2014) for his CNC router (computer-controlled cutting machine).
Conor Doble (Class of 2014) for his extendable couch.
Monique Kay (Class of 2014) for her abstract photography.
James Howell (Class of 2014) for his laser harp.
Ryland Lack-Powell (Class of 2015) for his dance ‘Brothers in Arms’.
